

English

Texts: The War That Saved My Life, Once, When Hitler Stole Pink Rabbit

Writing

Letter - evacuee to back home

Diary - surviving a night during the blitz

Newspaper report - breakout or end of war

SPaG

Conjunctions (subordinating and coordinating)

Relative clauses and pronouns

Apostrophes (omission and possession)

Comprehension

Prediction using the class novel and picture books.

Retrieval skills.

PSHE

Exploring Emotions: Identify what affects our feelings and how we can express this. Recognise when someone may be struggling and identify strategies. Recognise anyone can experience mental health issues.

History

- Understand how WWII began and the key people involved
- Explore when countries joined the war
- Know which countries were Allied and Axis
- Understand what the holocaust was and why it happened
- Know how atomic weapons were used
- Understand the impact of people's lives from the war
- Understand what D-Day and VE Day represent and how the war ended

Maths

Y5

- Place value - numbers to 1,000,000
- Comparing and rounding numbers to 1,000,000
- Addition and subtraction with 4 digit numbers
- Factors, prime / square / cube numbers, multiples

Y6

- Place value - numbers to 10,000,000
- Comparing, rounding and negative numbers
- Short and long multiplication and division
- Order of operations

Computing

Systems and searching

Recognise IT systems in the world and how they can enable internet searches
Internet safety - Self image and identity

Art / DT

Measure and create a working periscope.
Use shading and shadows to create a blitz skyline painting. Charcoal underground images inspired by Henry Moore

Curriculum Enrichment

WWII day
Harvest festival
White Hall residential

RE

Creation and Science
What do religions tell us about the natural world?

Spanish

Learn the Spanish for body parts and colours - being able to say them and understand them.

Science

Physics - Light

- Light appears to travel in straight lines
- How we see light sources and non-light sources
- How the shape and size of shadows are determined
- Understand how a periscope works
- Label the main parts of a human eye
- Understand reflection and refraction
- White light is made from a spectrum of colours

Music

Listen and appraise songs by the Beatles. Discuss the civil rights messages behind the songs. Sing in time and perform as a class

PE

Health related fitness
Cross Country
Invasion games (tag rugby)