

English

13 Sculptures Children Should Know. Eyewitness: Sculptures

Writing

- Narrative
- Black out poetry
- Interview about a sculptor

SPaG

- Personification
- Figurative language
- Subjunctive mood
- Recap punctuation

Comprehension

Consolidate all comprehension skills across a variety of text genres.

Music

Learn songs and lyrics for end of year play: Fee Fie Foe Fum. Play several notes on the glockenspiels both in time to the pulse and at the correct pitch in a Hip Hop style.

Art

- Look at the lives and works of famous sculptors, with a focus on Barbara Hepworth and Henry Moore
- Describe sculptures then interpret and analyse their meaning and impact
- Appreciate impact of sculpture in relation to its location and explore why the artist may have chosen that location
- Make detailed sketches of a piece of sculpture (YSP)
- Make maquettes inspired by a piece of sculpture

Maths

Y5

- Understand, classify, estimate, calculate, measure and draw angles
- Read, plot and translate coordinates
- Add and subtract decimals
- Convert units

Y6

- Consolidate use of 4 functions and understand the most efficient methods of solving problems
- Recap learning

Computing

Computer science: Build a sequence of algorithms to create a platform game. Online Bullying.

PSHE

RSE: periods, relationships, puberty
Drug Education. Making informed choices. Identify a range of substances. Influences and pressures. Asking for help. What a habit is and why they are hard to change.

Curriculum Enrichment

Yorkshire Sculpture Park. Sports Day. Forest School.

Year 6

Sex Education. Secondary school transition days. Leavers service.

Spanish

Words for animals and using them in the contexts of poetry and storytelling.

Science

Physics - Earth and space

- Name the planets within our solar system and understand their distance from one another
- Understand how the planets move in relation to the sun
- Describe the movement of the moon in relation to the earth
- Explain day and night using the rotation of the earth
- Understand that the earth, moon and sun are approximately spherical

RE

Hinduism.
Why is pilgrimage important to some religious believers?

PE

Athletics. Swimming. Sports Day