Our School Council have been meeting to discuss the children's rights at school. In our charter we state that children have the right to have their ideas heard and to be involved in making decisions, they should have the freedom to say what they think and by growing into good citizens they can work together to improve our environment.

They are planning a charity run on Wednesday 25th October in aid of childhood cancer awareness month – wear anything yellow/gold along with your PE kit. We are also making the bonfire lanterns on that day so we will do the run just before home time – please clap the children back into school and make a donation to help children with their cancer care.

Our older girls enjoyed a fun filled afternoon last week taking part with another 5 schools in 'This Girl Can!' Dancing, tennis skills and dodge ball were popular but the circus skills were certainly the favourite – the girls are hoping that School Council will help buy a set of resources..... so do get your 'healthy baking' skills honed as it's bake sale time again!

The School Council would like to promote both sweet and savoury treats and remember please to label – NO sesame NO peanuts and some lactose free and also soya and dairy free are always much appreciated as we have all these allergies amongst the children

Bake sale dates Hedgehogs Thursday 26th Oct, Owls Friday Nov 24th & Squirrels Friday January 12th

October is Black History Month and this year we've been focussing on celebrating and saluting the achievements of black women who have worked to bring about change – increasing representation and acknowledgement in all walks of life. The children have found out about sporting greats such as Ebony Rainford the cricketer, inspirational politicians such as Diane Abbott, Jessica Huntley a pioneering beacon of Black History and publishing in Britain, talented medics such as Dr Zoe Williams and amazing scientists such as Dr Maddie Aderin-Pocock to name just a very few.

Bonfire Rat building is going well. Please come and join us every Friday after school. Thanks for all the offers of help. We still need a few more Marshals for the evening 4.30 pm onwards. Please contact Julia (07867 360574) if you can help. All Eyam School children will be getting free tickets but don't forget to get your own from local shops and pubs. Thanks The Bonfire Team

Eyam PTFA Bonfire and Fireworks Display – Saturday 4th November 2023

Come and celebrate the burning of the Infamous Rat and help raise invaluable funds for Eyam School! The evening starts with entertainment in the village square from 5.30pm. The candlelit, music-led procession leaves the square at 6.15pm carrying the Eyam Rat, hand crafted by the school children out of willow, depicting the Eyam story of the plague of 1665. Walk through the village to the chants of 'Burn The Rat', where it is finally placed and lit on the huge bonfire and enjoy a fabulous firework display. A wide selection of food is served to include locally sourced farmhouse sausage hotdogs, jacket potatoes with homemade chilli or baked beans & cheese, Winter vegetable soup, roast chestnuts, parkin, bags of homemade bonfire toffee, locally brewed beer and cider, home brewed mulled wine, hot drinks and cold drinks.

Tickets on sale from early October from selected Eyam Shops, The Post Office, The Miners' Arms, Bloom and Calver Spar.

Adults £8 (over 16s) Children £4 (2-15) Under 2s Go Free.

Bakwell Old House Museum brought a wonderful array of artifacts to inspire the younger children in their topic about life in the past. They thoroughly enjoyed looking at and handling the artefacts.

Toys for all ages can be rehomed at school – for quiet play, afterschool club, outdoor play spaces and the Greenzone: please DO send in items that could be used at school including dolls, small imaginative play, construction and cars!
Thank you

Staff needed - Would you be interest in relief mid-day supervising occasionally or once/twice a week. Please call in to the office for more information.

Autumn & Winter Menu

Every pupil has been given a new school lunch menu to take home today.

Please let the office know if you wish to make changes to school meals or packed lunch days after the holiday.

An option of either a pasta pot, filled jacket potato or sandwich can be provided, please ask at the office.

Mrs Thorp will cook extra of the main each day for the first 3-week run so that R Y1 & Y2 can see and sample anything they are unsure about.
